

TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Employee Policies & Handbook

Document Version: 1.0

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Applicable To: All full-time and part-time employees

1. Introduction

TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. is committed to maintaining a professional, inclusive, productive, and respectful workplace.

This Employee Policy Handbook defines the general policies and procedures that employees are expected to follow during their employment with the company.

Employees are responsible for reading, understanding, and complying with the policies described in this document.

2. Working Hours Policy

Standard Working Hours

The standard working hours are:

- Monday to Friday
- 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM
- Lunch break: 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM
- Total working hours: 8 hours per day

Employees may be required to work additional hours depending on project requirements.

Flexible Working Hours

Employees may request flexible working hours with prior approval from their reporting manager.

Flexible working hours must not negatively impact:

- Project deadlines
- Team collaboration
- Customer commitments

- Meetings
 - Overall productivity
-

3. Leave Policy

TechNova provides employees with paid and unpaid leave according to their employment category.

3.1 Annual Leave

Employees are entitled to 18 days of paid annual leave per calendar year.

Annual leave should normally be requested at least 3 working days in advance.

For leave of more than 5 consecutive working days, employees should submit the request at least 7 working days in advance.

3.2 Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to 10 days of sick leave per calendar year.

Employees should inform their reporting manager as soon as possible if they are unable to attend work due to illness.

A medical certificate may be requested for sick leave exceeding 3 consecutive working days.

3.3 Casual Leave

Employees receive 6 days of casual leave per calendar year.

Casual leave may be used for personal matters, emergencies, or short-term requirements.

3.4 Emergency Leave

Employees may request emergency leave when an unexpected personal or family situation requires immediate attention.

The employee should inform their manager as soon as reasonably possible.

Approval will depend on the circumstances and available leave balance.

3.5 Leave Approval

Employees must apply for leave through the company's designated HR or attendance system.

Leave is considered approved only after receiving confirmation from the reporting manager or authorized HR representative.

Unauthorized absence may be treated as unpaid leave.

4. Holiday Policy

The company observes public and company-declared holidays.

Employees will receive the annual holiday calendar at the beginning of each calendar year.

The holiday calendar may vary depending on the employee's work location.

Employees required to work on designated holidays may receive compensatory leave or other benefits according to company policy.

5. Work From Home / Remote Work Policy

Employees may be permitted to work remotely depending on their role and project requirements.

Remote work requires prior approval from the reporting manager.

Employees working remotely must:

- Remain available during working hours.
- Attend scheduled meetings.
- Maintain stable internet connectivity.
- Protect company information.
- Follow all information-security requirements.
- Complete assigned work within agreed deadlines.

Remote work is a work arrangement and should not be treated as a substitute for leave.

6. Attendance Policy

Employees are expected to maintain regular and punctual attendance.

Employees must record their attendance using the company's approved attendance system.

Repeated late arrival or unexplained absence may result in disciplinary action.

Employees who are unable to attend work must notify their reporting manager as soon as possible.

7. Overtime Policy

Overtime may be required during critical project periods or business emergencies.

Employees must obtain prior approval from their manager before working overtime whenever reasonably possible.

Approved overtime may be compensated through:

- Overtime payment, or
- Compensatory leave,

depending on the employee's employment category and applicable company rules.

8. Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to behave professionally and respectfully.

Employees must:

- Treat colleagues with respect.
- Avoid harassment and discrimination.
- Maintain professional communication.
- Protect company property.
- Follow applicable laws and regulations.
- Avoid conflicts of interest.
- Maintain confidentiality of company information.

Bullying, harassment, discrimination, threats, or abusive behavior will not be tolerated.

9. Performance Review Policy

Employee performance is generally reviewed twice per year.

Performance evaluations may consider:

- Quality of work
- Productivity
- Technical skills
- Communication
- Teamwork
- Problem-solving
- Customer feedback
- Achievement of assigned goals

Performance reviews may be used for determining:

- Promotions
 - Salary increases
 - Bonuses
 - Training requirements
 - Career-development plans
-

10. Promotion Policy

Employees may be considered for promotion based on performance, experience, skills, business requirements, and availability of suitable positions.

Promotion is not guaranteed solely based on length of service.

Employees may be required to demonstrate the skills and responsibilities expected at the next level.

11. Salary and Payroll Policy

Employee salaries are normally paid on a monthly basis.

Salary payments are processed on or before the company's designated payroll date.

Salary information is considered confidential and should not be disclosed outside authorized company channels.

Any payroll discrepancy should be reported to the HR or Payroll department.

12. Expense Reimbursement Policy

Employees may claim reimbursement for approved business expenses.

Examples include:

- Business travel
- Accommodation
- Transportation
- Client meetings
- Approved business purchases

Employees must submit valid receipts and supporting documents.

Expense claims should normally be submitted within 30 days of the expense.

Expenses without appropriate documentation may be rejected.

13. Business Travel Policy

Business travel must be approved by the employee's manager before booking.

The company may reimburse reasonable expenses related to approved business travel.

Employees are expected to select reasonably priced transportation and accommodation options.

Personal expenses incurred during business travel are generally not reimbursable.

14. Information Security Policy

Employees are responsible for protecting company information and systems.

Employees must:

- Use strong passwords.
- Never share passwords with others.
- Lock their computer when away from their workstation.
- Avoid accessing confidential information on unsecured networks.
- Report suspected security incidents immediately.
- Follow company cybersecurity procedures.

Unauthorized access, copying, modification, or distribution of company information is prohibited.

15. Data Privacy Policy

Employees may have access to personal, customer, employee, or business data.

Such information must only be accessed when required for legitimate business purposes.

Employees must not:

- Share confidential information with unauthorized individuals.
- Copy sensitive information to personal devices without authorization.
- Store company data on unauthorized cloud services.
- Use customer information for personal purposes.

Any suspected data breach must be reported immediately to the Information Security team.

16. Company Equipment Policy

Company-provided equipment such as laptops, mobile phones, and access cards must be used responsibly.

Employees are responsible for taking reasonable care of company property.

Lost or stolen equipment must be reported to the company immediately.

Upon leaving the company, employees must return all company property.

17. Confidentiality Policy

Employees may have access to confidential company information including:

- Source code
- Business strategies
- Customer information
- Financial information
- Internal documentation
- Employee information
- Product plans
- Trade secrets

Employees must not disclose confidential information to unauthorized individuals during or after their employment.

18. Training and Development Policy

The company encourages employees to continuously develop their professional and technical skills.

Employees may participate in:

- Internal training
- Technical workshops
- Certifications
- Online courses
- Conferences
- Leadership programs

Training opportunities may depend on business requirements and manager approval.

19. Grievance Policy

Employees who have workplace concerns may raise them with:

1. Their reporting manager
2. HR department
3. Designated grievance officer

Employees are encouraged to report concerns honestly and promptly.

The company will attempt to investigate complaints fairly and confidentially.

20. Resignation Policy

Employees who wish to resign must submit a formal resignation through the company's approved process.

The applicable notice period will be specified in the employee's employment agreement.

During the notice period, employees are expected to:

- Complete assigned responsibilities.
- Document ongoing work.
- Transfer knowledge to designated employees.

- Return company property.
 - Complete required exit procedures.
-

21. Termination Policy

Employment may be terminated due to reasons including:

- Serious policy violations
- Misconduct
- Poor performance after appropriate corrective measures
- Unauthorized disclosure of confidential information
- Fraud
- Repeated unauthorized absence
- Business restructuring

Termination procedures will follow the employee's employment agreement and applicable laws.

22. Exit Process

Before leaving the company, employees must complete the required exit process.

This may include:

- Knowledge transfer
- Return of company equipment
- Revocation of system access
- Clearance from relevant departments
- Exit interview
- Final settlement

The company will provide applicable employment and separation documents after completion of the required process.

23. Policy Changes

TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. reserves the right to modify, update, or replace company policies based on business requirements, organizational changes, or applicable laws.

Employees will be informed about significant policy changes through official company communication channels.

24. Important Contacts

Human Resources: hr@technova.example

IT Support: it-support@technova.example

Information Security: security@technova.example

Payroll: payroll@technova.example

Employee Acknowledgement

I acknowledge that I have received and read the TechNova Solutions Employee Policies & Handbook.

I understand that I am responsible for complying with the applicable company policies and procedures.

Employee Name: _____

Employee ID: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

End of Document

This is a fictional sample document created for demonstration and training purposes. It does not constitute legal or employment advice.